NOTES FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

I hope everyone had a great 4th of July holiday, and that you are planning to attend the fun and educational events that we have planned for the end of July. Just to remind everyone, we have the "Circling Geese" class being offered on Friday or Saturday, July 25th and 26th, so you can attend on the day that works best for you. There are still openings for either day, so contact Norita if you would like to sign-up. We also have our Dinner/Trunk Show on Friday, July 25th at 6:00 pm which should be a great opportunity for all of us to view some great quilts and visit with friends from our Guild as well as members from other Guilds. At the June meeting a sign-up sheet was passed around for members to volunteer to bring a salad, dessert, or both for the Friday evening meal. If you did not sign-up, please look for instructions on page 2 or 4. We will need help from everyone. The Friday evening event is free to all members, so please try to attend and bring your friends. The charge is $6 for non-members.

See you all on the 25th and keep cool!!!

Karen

Community Service Update:

2008 Block of the Month Program for QOV's

The Block: You will need to cut 5- 4 1/2 inch squares of one of the colors and 4- 4 1/2 inch squares of the other color. I won't specify which color is which, that's your option.

Finished size- 12 inches, or 12 1/2 inches from raw edge to raw edge. July-red & royal blue; August-rust & brown

Just save your July blocks and turn them in August as we won't be having a meeting and I can't attend the lecture. Please also save any kits or bound quilts until the August meeting.

Thanks- Janet

WE NEED EVERYONE'S HELP for
OUR JULY SALAD AND TRUNK
SHOW BY KATHLEEN MOORHEAD
JOHNSON

1. Did you sign up for either a salad or dessert? Can't remember what you signed up for? Check the list Linda has provided in this newsletter.

2. You weren't at the last meeting? If your last name starts with A-N bring a salad for 12 people. If your last name starts with O-Z, bring a dessert.

3. We need fun table cloths. They can be anything, fabric, plastic, linen, etc. I am going to bring a couple of my old 50's table cloths.

4. We also need vases of flowers or pots of flowers for table decorations. Yes, you can be creative...

5. If you can help set up early, please call Linda, Norita, or Deb, and tell them you will be there to help out. The entire committee will appreciate it.

6. There will be ads in the Brookings Register and the Shopper advertising this event. We are asking people to try to make reservations so we have enough food. I will put the ad in this newsletter so you can use it to ask friends. Thanks for all of your help. Norita Henneman. Linda Louder, Sandy McFarland, Sharon Krier, and Deb Carlson.

Quilts & Vines

Quilts and Vines is Sioux Falls' premier outdoor quilt show and wine tasting event. Presented by Strawbale Winery and Heirloom Creations in conjunction with Project Linus, this colorful showing of quilts hung over the rich green grape vines is a sight to behold. Lazily stroll throughout the quilt decorated vineyards while tasting a variety of wines produced solely with South Dakota grown fruits, berries and grapes. Situated in the country side of Renner, SD just 5 miles North of Sioux Falls, Strawbale Winery is known for their hospitality and love and knowledge of wine.

Show Tickets

Quilts & Vines tickets are now available at Strawbale Winery and Heirloom Creations. Tickets are $8 in advance and $10 at door for all ages. The first 1,500 registered guests will receive a souvenir wine glass. The local Project Linus chapter will receive a portion of all ticket sales. Date: August 9th, 10:00-5:00pm. Rain date August 16th.

HOSPITALITY LIST FOR 2008

August: Theresa Bennett &
Jeune Nicolai
September: Deb Carlson &
Kay Jorenby
October: Lynne Wellberg &
Jeri Nelson
November: Holiday Party

Leaf printing class

( August 9- 1pm)

I have the following signed up for class on the 9th: Eris Lenz, Ida Slocum, Linda Louder, and Kay Jorenby. I have room for a few more people, so if you are interested please call or e-mail me and I will send out directions to my house and a supply list.

Basically all you have to bring is fabric. If the weather co-operates we will do some sun printing. Cost $7

Janet Myers
605-997-2834

A Couple of Items from Linda Louder

1. Thank you very much Theresa for the door prize of a book and some hand dyed fabric at the June meeting
2. I need to give credit to Helen Kelley and Quilter's Newsletter Magazine for giving permission to use an excerpt from Helen's book, "Every Quilt Tells A Story" for our fun and informative mixer at the June guild meeting.

LADIES,

Below are the members who signed up to bring a food item at the last guild meeting. Norita has affirmative responses for 35 outside guild members coming. We usually have at least 50 for our invitational events. That is not including our guild members or others taking the class, or reservations from the general public so we will need more food. If you weren't at the last meeting and your last name starts with A-N bring a salad for 12 people. If your last name starts with O-Z, bring a dessert.

Please call or email me with your choice. I will be making shredded meat BBQ-served on buns- and we will also be serving coffee, sun tea and lemon water.

9 X 13 PAN or larger DESSERT, Cake or BARS

1. Jo Meyer---Pretzel dessert
2. Rose Horner---Layered pudding dessert
3. Deon Simon---Gluten-free bars

4. Marcia Ness---Brownie sheet cake
5. Belinda Kruse---Pumpkin pound cake
6. Karen Spurgeon---she signed here but didn't specify
7. Linda Louder---Baklava
8. Deb Carlson---Lazy Daisy Bars

SALAD to serve 10 to 12 people---- NO JELLO please!

1. Pearl Ivers---Potato salad
2. Lynne Wellberg---Potato salad
3. Marlys Moore---Chinese salad
4. Alison Tappan---Pasta
5. Jeri Nelson---Shrimp/lettuce
6. Karen Spurgeon---Fruit
7. Ida Slocum---Fruit
8. Lola Johnson---2 pots of Calico Beans
9. Deb Carlson---lettuce salad or Chicken Oriental Salad
